

FAMIS Course in Egypt

On behalf of FAMIS Fegh academy for minimal invasive surgery; it is our great pleasure to welcome you in Egypt in the first Bariatric Course in the Middle East.

- This course is for general surgeons who want to enter the field of bariatrics or existing bariatric surgeons want to learn the latest state of art of bariatric surgery techniques and care.
- The course puts emphasis on the fast tracking skills and discusses in detail the different types of bariatric surgeries; which type of surgery is suited for which kind of patient, also tips about pre- and post-surgery care.

This course is endorsed by

- PASMBS, the Pan Arab Society for Metabolic and Bariatric Surgery.
- OSAMA TAHA ACADEMY ,

The Course is accredited by AACME for 20.5 CME hours

Clinical Immersion Bariatric Course

Day 1 Program

- General Introduction and Clinical Group Discussions
- Lecture on types of bariatric procedures and which one suitable for each patient

Day 2 Program

- Setting up a Bariatric Fast Track setup.
- Patient selection and preparation for procedure
- Technical elements ( omega loop , gastric bypass , Roux En Y- gastric bypass , Sleeve gastrectomy )
- Live surgery ( 4- 5 ) cases
  - Demonstration with full illustration to steps of performing Omega Loop gastric bypass
  - Demonstration tips and tricks including safety protocol during surgery
  - Demonstration port side introduction and manipulation with low space of abdomen

Day 3 Program

- Technical elements on Laparoscopic redo bariatric surgery
- Preoperative Risk Assessment for Super-obese patients Lecture
- Demonstration tips and tricks including safety protocol during surgery
- Results, outcomes and complications Management
- Live surgery ( 4-5 ) cases
  - Anastomoses technique including SECURE-END technique
  - Loop sizing parameter and impact on weight loss results in sleeve gastrectomy
  - Review port side & tips , tricks including safety protocol during surgery