

Criteria for entries

IFSO and WGO invite their members to submit recipes which will support people living with overweight or obesity, or undergoing bariatric surgery, to eat healthily and meet their nutritional needs.

The recipes will be judged using the following criteria:

- Accurate nutritional composition and suitability for people living with overweight or obesity, or having bariatric surgery. See Nutritional Composition for further information.
- Originality
- Ease of preparation
- Quality of presentation

Recipes will appear in a recipe book alongside the author's name and country.

Nutritional composition

It is important that accurate nutritional analysis is given. Please provide the nutritional breakdown by ingredient, making sure that the correct weight is used. For example, for 125 g chicken, specify whether it is the breast or thigh meat and whether it is the raw or cooked weight; for 120 g macaroni, specify whether dried weight or cooked weight. The nutritional analysis by ingredient will not be published in the recipe book. Please specify the programme or source used for your analysis. If the nutritional analysis is incorrect or difficult to check, the recipe will not be accepted.

Please provide Nutritional Facts Per Serving:

- Calories: kcal
- Total Protein: (g)
- Carbohydrate (g)
 - Of which sugars: (g)
- Fat: (g)
- Iron: (mg)
- Calcium; (mg)

The nutritional facts per serving will be included with the recipe, when published.
